

For Immediate Release:

Air Supply is Coming to Town again

Air Supply will mark their second performance in Macao, at Sands Macao Theatre from Friday, June 6 to Sunday, June 8, 2008

Macao, Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China (April 25, 2008) - After the successful concert held last October in Macao, members of Air Supply, Russell Hitchcock and Graham Russell are going to perform for the Macau audience at Sands Macao Theatre again on Friday, June 6 to Sunday, June 8, 2008 at 0830pm.

"Air Supply is excited to visit Macao again. We have always been looking forward to this opportunity and we are glad to be invited to play at the Sands Theater again. We long to meet the Macau audience and we will make it another fabulous night for them" said Graham Russell, Air Supply.

Air Supply has been playing for 33 years; it was formed in year 1975 in Australia. It is amazing how this band keep up their popularity among the region and throughout the world. Their love songs are always soft and harmonic which touch people's hearts. Many of them have achieved multi-million plays on the radio and have become the all-time-favorite throughout the world. Their all-the-time hits include "All Out of Love", "Making Love Out of Nothing at All", "Every Woman in the World", "Lost in Love", "Two less Lonely People in the World" and "Love and other Bruises".

"We are honored to have Air Supply to perform at the Sands Theatre again. We have great feedback from their show last year and this time we have decided to extend it to 3 consecutive nights. If you have watched their performance last year, you certainly should come again for an entirely new experience. If you haven't attended their show last year, you definitely don't want to miss their incredible performance this time!" said Mr. Mark Brown, President of Sands Macao and The Venetian® Macao-Resort-Hotel.

Macao will be the first stop in Asia for the World Tour 2008 by Air Supply. They will also cover the Philippines, Singapore, Malaysia, Taiwan, Thailand, Israel, Brazil, Canada and USA. The show will last for around 90 minutes. New elements will be added this time to ensure that audience will have a unique experience.

Sands Macao Theatre is a beautiful theatre equipped with the most advanced lighting and sound system in the world. The 651 seats are arranged in a way that provides perfect viewing from every seat in the house and gives the audience an intimate experience. With the international standard theatre, the Sands Macao is attracting the best talent the international entertainment industry has to offer.

Tickets for the show (three shows consecutively on Friday, June 6 till Sunday, June 8 at 0830pm) will be on sale Monday, April 28; priced at MOP$580 and MOP$680 and can be booked online at www.venetianmacaotickets.com, by phone on (853) 2882 8818, or in person at the Sands Macao Lobby and the Cotai Strip® CotaiArena™ Box Offices.
